This decrease was a result of the contraction of business activity, with variable costs declining 10.5%, with emphasis on a 5.8% decline in programming costs. Fixed costs fell 6.6% in the same period, driven by the reduction of 7.2% in staff costs. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, IMPRESA registered a year-on-year decrease of 6.4% in consolidated operating costs, excluding impairment losses.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, EBITDA came to 12.2 M€, in line with the values achieved in the same period of the previous year, representing a margin of 7.3%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, consolidated EBITDA fell 50.9% to 1.7 M€.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, the negative financial results improved 2.8% relative to September 2011, reaching 10.2 M€. This variation is explained by the reduction of net debt in average terms. In contrast, an increase in exchange rate losses during the nine months until September 2012 was registered. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, the negative financial results increased by 16.0% to 3.5 M€, due to exchange rate losses.

Net debt, at the end of September 2012, stood at 218.9 M€, about 13.7 M€ less than the value of September 2011 (232.6 M€), and similar to the value of June 2012 (218.8 M€).

Results before taxes, minority interests and impairments, in September 2012, was negative by 3.6 M€, which represented an improvement of 14.2% in relation to September 2011. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, results before taxes and impairments were negative by 3.5 M€.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, negative net income came to 3.6 M€, in comparison with the negative value of 34.0 M€ of September 2011. Without considering impairment losses, negative net income came to 3.1 M€, in comparison with negative 4.5 M€ in September 2011, representing an improvement of 32.2%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, IMPRESA registered negative net income, penalised by the contraction of business activity, reaching 2.5 M€.

During the month of October, integrated in the reorganisation process, IMPRESA reduced its staff by about 50 people, encompassing all the areas of the Group, and in particular IMPRESA Publishing which following a strategic reflection based on the definition of the editorial areas in which the company wants to be present, and decided to reorganise its portfolio of publications.

SIC ended the month of September 2012 with total revenues of 114.7 M€, which represented a decrease of only 3.6%, affected by the contraction of the advertising market, but was compensated by the increase in other revenues. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, total revenues fell 4.3% year-on-year to 34.3 M€.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, advertising revenues fell 10.4% to 63.6 M€, less than the decline registered in the television advertising market. This performance was due to the improvement in audiences, mainly in prime time and in the main commercial targets, which enabled SIC to gain market share. At the end of September 2012, SIC's market share of advertising revenues was about 41%, which represents the highest value of the last 7 years. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, advertising revenues declined 11.2% to 17.3 M€.

In the nine months to September 2012, SIC's daily average audiences reached 21.7%. Since March 2012, audiences have been measured in accordance with the new Gfk panel. In spite of this change, the focus on commercial targets in terms of programming has continued to bear fruit. An average audience of 23.9% was reached, in the commercial target, over the nine months through to September 2012, representing a 0.4 percentage points increase in relation to the same period of the previous year. SIC therefore led audiences, in the commercial target, in the nine months through to September 2012.

IMPRESA

But in terms of commercial target, the highest audience gains were registered in prime time.

Audiences - Prime -Time

An average audience of 28% in the nine months through to September 2012 was achieved, higher than the average of the station and 0.8 percentage points higher than the same period of the previous year. These values represent the best result since 2006, and give SIC the leadership in prime time in the commercial target.

Overall, prime time audiences reached 24.6%, a decrease of 0.7 percentage points, the lowest decline among the generalist channels.

Audiences - Prime-Time
(Commercial Share)

The audiences of the Portuguese and Brazilian soap operas have contributed to the strong performance in the commercial targets. In June 2012, the soap opera "Dancin' Days" made its debut, which since summer has conquered the leadership of the most seen programmes. And in September the Brazilian soap opera "Gabriela" made its debut, whose good performance allowed SIC to reach the leadership in prime time, during week days, at the end of the month. It is also important to mention the good performance of other Brazilian soap operas in the block before prime time, namely "Morde & Assopra" and "Fina Estampa", which led que broadcast block between 18:00 and 20:00. And, finally, the debut at the end of September 2012 of the Brazilian soap opera "Avenida Brasil", also with excellent results, above the average of the station. In the interim, the soap opera "Rosa Fogo", which was broadcast until June 2012, was nominated for this year's "Emmy's". The period through to September 2012 was also marked by the transmission of major events, such as the final of the European League - whose transmission rights SIC renewed for another 3 years until 2015, the final of the League Cup, the Golden Globe Gala and the European Football Championship 2012.

Subscription revenues increased by 3.4% to 33.8 M€, in the nine months until September 2012. During the 3rd quarter of 2012, revenues rose by 4.2%, driven by the dynamism of the international market.

SIC and its set of thematic channels - SIC Notícias, SIC Radical, SIC Mulher and SIC K - achieved a share of 24.9% in the period between March and September 2012, which enabled it to lead audiences in this period.

Multimedia revenues increased by 13,6% over the nine-month period through to September 2012, reaching 12.6 M€, benefitting from the good performance of the IVR contests, namely "Jogo da Glória", "Cartão de Sonho", "Cartas da Maia" and the car contests. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, multimedia revenues came to 4.1 M€, representing a slight year-on-year decrease of 2.9%, due to the broadcasting of "Ídolos" in the same period of the previous year.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, other revenues registered an increase of 8.6%, reaching 4.7 M€, due to the increase in merchandising revenues and sale of contents. In the 3rd quarter, other revenues (1.6 M€) increased 24.1% year-on-year.

IMPRESA

Sociedade Gestora de Participações Sociais, SA.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, the cost-cutting effort was reflected in lower operating costs which fell by 4.0% year-on-year, influenced mainly by the reduction in programming and staff costs. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, operating costs only fell 0.1%.

The favourable operational performance allowed maintaining EBITDA, at the end of September 2012, at the same levels as those of the same period of the previous year, reaching 11.4 M€, which represents a margin of 9.9%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, EBITDA fell 43.4% to 1.9 M€.

This performance allowed results before taxes to be maintained, which reached 5.2 M€ in the nine months until the end of September 2012, to be maintained, representing a decline of only 0.5%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, results before taxes were negative by 186 thousand euros.

Over the nine-month period through to the end of September 2012, total revenues decreased 15.1% to 50.9 M€, with the decline in revenues being transversal to all the businesses of IMPRESA Publishing. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, total revenues declined 16.7% to 15.9 M€.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, the decline in advertising revenues declined 18.7% to 21.8 M€, with the press segment continuing to be particularly affected by the recessive environment of the Portuguese economy. It was able to, however, achieve a better performance than the press market. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, the recessive environment worsened, resulting in a 20.7% year-on-year decline in advertising revenues.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, circulation revenues fell 11.4%, reaching 23.3 M€, also reflecting the contraction registered in private consumption. Circulation revenues fell 11.1% in the 3rd quarter of 2012, reaching 8.3 M€. In spite of the overall decline in sales, the strong increase of sales in digital formats continued, in particular for Ipad. The newspaper Expresso has weekly sales in digital format of about 6,000 copies, and the magazine Visão has weekly sales of about 3,000 copies. Expresso and Visão are the best-selling Portuguese publications in the new platforms, and also maintain the leadership of paid circulation in their respective segments.

On the other hand, the sites of IMPRESA Publishing continued to grow in terms of traffic. In September 2012, the sites achieved 14.2 million visits and 86.6 million pageviews. These figures represent an average growth of 24.2% in visits and 5.2% in pageviews, relative to September 2011.

Facing a difficult economic climate, the sales of associated products fell 23.4% up to September 2012. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, the revenues generated from associated products fell 53.1% year-on-year.

Other revenues registered a decline of 7.9% over the nine-month period through to September 2012, in spite of the increase in activity in the Customer Publishing area.

At the end of September 2012, operating costs fell 14.4%, as a result of the reorganisation measures implemented over the last few quarters. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, operating costs also fell 14.4%.

The reduction of costs enabled the contraction of EBITDA to be mitigated, which fell 38.1% to 1.47 M€ at the end of September 2012. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, EBITDA was negative by 246 thousand euros.

Over the nine-month period through to September 2012, results before taxes were negative by 1.1 M€, which represents an improvement of 9.2%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, results before taxes were negative by 1.0 M€.

During the month of October, IMPRESA Publishing decided to reorganise its portfolio of publications, following a strategic reflection based on the definition of the editorial areas in which the company wants to be present. In this regard, IMPRESA Publishing decided to discontinue its brands in the decoration (with the exception of the publication Caras Decoração, leader in this segment) and automobile areas, which includes the magazines Casa Cláudia, Casa Cláudia Ideias, Arquitetura & Construção, of the decoration segment, and the publications Autosport and Volante, of the automobile sector, and respective sites. The sites Relvado and Mygames will also be discontinued.

These measures are part of a reorganisation process of IMPRESA, aimed at reinforcing its focus on publications and brands in which the Group is leader.

The main reason for this decline was the alteration of the consolidation perimeter. Operating costs fell 58.8% until September 2012, benefitting from the closure and disposal of various companies and businesses over the previous year. As a result, EBITDA was negative by 695 thousand euros in September 2012, which represented a recovery of 56.8%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, EBITDA was positive by negative 16.9 thousand euros, a substantial improvement in relation to the negative 1.0 M€ of the 3rd quarter of 2011.

The performance of the main activities was as follows:

InfoPortugal achieved revenues of 1.5 M€ over the nine-month period through to September 2012, representing a year-on-year gain of 35.9%. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, revenues almost doubled to 647 thousand euros, with a positive contribution from all areas. At the same time, a significant improvement of the margin over the same periods was registered. InfoPortugal continued to reinforce its presence in more recent activities, namely digital aerial photography, production of geographic information systems (GIS) and development of integrated solutions.

The Olhares website, which has been included in the consolidation perimeter of IMPRESA Other since January 2012, registered a 22.6% decrease in total turnover until the end of September 2012. In the 3rd quarter of 2012, the decline in turnover came to 28.3%. This decrease was mainly due to the decline in advertising revenues, which was not offset by the modest increase in subscription revenues and revenues from Academia Olhares. It is important to note that Academia Olhares initiated its activity in Brazil during the month of September. The change in revenue structure penalised margins, which was reflected in a fall in EBITDA over the nine-month period through to September 2012.
